Padel is like a tsunami... nothing can stop the growing attraction of the sport... and the Principality is currently in the midst of leading the charge with Monte-Carlo hosting the first edition of the FIVE PADEL CUP, from 17th to 19th of April 2023 including an exclusive and inclusive tournament-event dedicated to padel, using the courts and facilities of the Eze tennis/padel club.

Padelmania is a booming phenomenon in Spain, Italy, France, Monaco and internationally, so much so that three days are being dedicated to it in the prestigious setting of the Principality of Monaco. That will put Padel at the heart of attention and bring together several interests... sporting, social and charitable... to celebrate this popular discipline in the most global way possible.

The event is centred around the Five Padel Cup that will bring together some great people, stars from the sporting world, of course, but not only sports.

And there will be 5 simultaneous tournaments:

- Tournament for VIPs from the business world
- Men's tournament
- Women's tournament

Gala Evenings

Never miss a chance to have a Gala. Padel is, if nothing else, very social. Fun and entertainment are almost mandatory! And so Gala evenings will take place at Crazy Pizza and Twiga, the key venues of Flavio Briatore's MAJESTAS group. All this to honour and represent the best of Monaco.

Charity

Monaco always places an emphasis on Charity at its events and one of the objectives of the Five Padel Cup will also be to assure charitable actions, for the benefit of a Monegasque association.

Who Helped Create the Event

The Principality of Monaco and Monte Carlo and Eze Padel/Tennis Club are front and Centre. The FIVE PADEL CUP was also born from the synergy between the entities of the BSG SRL communication company in Rome: the independent media agency, Padel Media Communication and Excellere, the sector dedicated to events.

In the wake of the 'padelmania' phenomenon, a new padel tournament, the Five Padel Cup, will be coming to Eze from 17th to 19th April.

Bringing together sport, social and charitable aspects, the competition is made for anyone interested in seeing first-hand the rising stars in this exciting, fast-paced sport. With events being planned by the Eze Tennis-Padel Club and the Principality, the three-day tournament will "offer a memorable experience" to participants and spectators alike.

As per the format, there will be five simultaneous competitions occurring at the same time. In addition to the women's and men's tournaments, there will also be a contest for those with physical disabilities, one for VIPs from the business world, and one dedicated to sports personalities from different disciplines, such as football and racing.

Amongst those will be the Barbagiuans of Monaco, a group created by Prince Albert and now run by Louis Ducruet, who will have put together one or more teams. Though the teams are yet to be announced, they are usually comprised of local and international footballers, giving fans a chance to watch some of their favourite sports figures in action in a totally different medium.

The event also will have a strong charity aspect, with a local association benefitting from some of the proceeds.

To add an element of glamour, there will also be two gala evenings – one at Crazy Pizza, the other at Twiga – so players and spectators can mix and mingle in a casual way.

Pas de trêve pour le monde de la balle jaune. Après le tennis et le Rolex Monte-Carlo Masters qui se tiendra du 8 au 16 avril, la Principauté va prolonger les festivités jusqu'au 19. Et c'est grâce à la Five Padel Cup. Organisée par une société de communication basée à Rome, la compétition va vivre sa première édition cette année. Cependant, elle aura lieu physiquement au club de tennis d'Èze. Si les détails du rendez-vous n'ont pas encore été précisés, on en connaît déjà les contours.

Où et quand?

La compétition aura lieu du 17 au 19 avril au club de tennis d'Èze et sa vue imprenable. Pour autant, de nombreuses animations devraient être organisées entre la Principauté et Èze.

Pour qui?

C'est là que les choses se précisent. La compétition est divisée en 5 tournois distincts:

Un tournoi dédié aux "VIP du monde du business".

Un tournoi masculin. Les joueurs seront choisis et conviés par l'organisation.

Un tournoi féminin. Et comme pour les messieurs, les dames seront conviées par l'organisation. La compétition n'est pas ouverte à tous.

Un tournoi en fauteuil pour les personnes en situation de handicap physique.

Enfin, le dernier tournoi réunira des "VIP sportifs" avec des "personnalités sportives incontournables sur la scène internationale de différentes disciplines". a d'ores et déjà fait savoir l'organisation. Cette dernière a confirmé, parmi eux, la participation des Barbagiuans, toujours emmenés par Louis Druquet.

La liste des joueurs présents n'a pas encore été dévoilée. Ce devrait être le cas fin mars/début avril. On imagine déjà Gaël Givet, Sébastien Squilacci ou encore Didier Deschamps, habitués des terrains de padel, foulé le synthétique du club ézois.

Un volet caritatif

Il n'y aura pas que du sport. Les organisateurs ont indiqué vouloir mener des actions caritatives. Le tout se fera au profit d'une association monégasque dont on ne connaît pas encore le nom.

A major event-tournament for padel fans will be held in the Principality of Monaco from 17 to 19 April: it is the first edition of the 5 Padel Cup three days of sports and entertainment meetings involving managers, athletes of various categories and VIPs, between Eze and Monte Carlo.

Born from the synergy between the different realities of BSG Srl Group – the historic independent media center, Padel Media Communication and Excellere, a sector dedicated to events – the 5 Padel Cup, supported by Sky Sport e which it will have as partner radio RTL 102.5, celebrates the universality of this sport where inclusiveness, new recruits and women's tournaments will be at the center.

The structure that will host the tournaments will be the prestigious Tennis Club of Eze where a real sports village will be held – with padel, tennis and 5-a-side football fields for the exclusive use of the participants, including some football players of the Monegasque Barbagiuans club founded by Albert of Monaco and led by his young nephew Louis Ducruet – while guests will stay in the luxurious Hotel Fairmont of Monte Carlo. Also in Monte Carlo many other great entertainment initiatives for the participants of the first edition of the 5 Padel Cup, such as the evening at Crazy Pizza and the closing ceremony with gala dinner and awards at the Giraffebot part of gruppo Majestas di Flavio Briatore.

Development and direction of the five tournaments – Business Padel Cup, Champions Padel Cup, Generation Z Padel Cup, Women Padel Cup e For All Padel Cup – are entrusted to a high-level team: Roberto Agnini, padel technical director of the Circolo Canottieri Aniene, Saverio Palmieri, Sky Sport commentator, Alessandro Tinti, padel player in the national team in the 2021 World Cup and for years at the top of the Italian padel e Simone Iacovino, young Italian talent. Moderator of the event is Alessandro Lupi, Sky journalist, Commentator of the Rolex Master 2022 and passionate padel player. Dario Marcolin, DAZN commentator and Italian ex-footballer will follow the Business and Champions tournaments.

LOUIS DUCRUET'S BARBAGIUANS SET TO TAKE ON FIRST EVER FIVE PADEL CUP

by Jack Brodie | Apr 4, 2023 | Sport

In the wake of the Monte-Carlo Masters tournament, the Eze Padel Club will host the first ever edition of the Five Padel Cup, a three-day event consisting of five different padel tournaments.

BSG SRL, the company behind the new cup, will bring together stars and amateurs and pros from different backgrounds together for a special competition. The main objective of the Five Padel Cup is "to highlight the universality of this sport by inviting at the same time and in an exceptional setting*, personalities from different horizons. It's an opportunity for all participants to meet around a common interest," says Roberta Ceccarelli, the CEO of the Rome based company organising the event.

From Monday, April 17 to Wednesday, April 19, five separate categories of players will simultaneously battle it out on the courts of the Eze Village club in the first ever Five Padel Cup. The categories include a youth tournament, a women's competition, a tournament for wheelchair padel players and two further competitions. Taking on the sport's VIP category will be Louis Ducruet's Barbagiuans, a fully Monegasque sports team set up by HSH Prince Albert over forty years ago, now captained by his nephew Ducruet.

Perhaps as a result of their participation in the annual Fight AIDS Cup, supporting Princess Stephanie's Fight AIDS Monaco foundation, the Barbagiuans are most commonly associated with football, so the Five Padel Club will present the challenge of a new discipline.

Two Barbagiuan teams will take to the courts, including a former AS Monaco player Gaël Givet. The French international played as a defender in the Principality side's European conquest in 2004. Now back in red and white with the Barbagiuans, Givet is mastering the padel, and for a noble cause, as the event seeks to highlight the Fight AIDS Monaco foundation, along with Fondazione HEAL. Both foundations will receive part of the proceeds as beneficiaries of the cup.

Givet will joined by other former football players, more specifically the former players of the Squadra Azzura, more widely known as the Italian national football team. The Italian stallions will be taking up their rackets to bring the fight to the doorstep of the Barbagiuans in the rapidly growing game of padel. "The beauty of padel is also in the diversity of the profiles of the players, more and more numerous in Italy and around the world," Ceccarelli confirmed.

Format attractif, présence des Barbagiuans, enjeux caritatifs... La Five Padel Cup s'annonce passionnante

Par Romain Boisaubert Publié le 12 avril 2023

La Five Padel Cup se tiendra du 17 au 19 avril au Tennis/Padel Club d'Èze. De nombreuses personnalités ont été conviées par la société BSG SRL de Rome, à l'origine de la compétition.

Un format riche

Cinq tournois seront disputés durant les trois jours de compétition. Le Tournoi jeunes mixte mettra en prise des gagnants et gagnantes d'un concours mis en place par la radio italienne ZETA mais également des membres de l'école de padel d'Èze.

Le Tournoi féminin verra quant à lui s'affronter des professionnelles italiennes et gagnantes des tournois organisés par le Movimiento Padel Femminile, une association dédiée aux joueuses amateurs.

Le Tournoi pour joueurs de padel en fauteuil accueillera de nombreux joueurs italiens, mais aussi Dorian Navarro, joueur français de haut niveau venu de Nice.

Le Tournoi des managers sera lui disputé entre des personnalités du monde du business, alors que le Tournoi dédié aux VIPs sportifs offrira l'opportunité de mettre en avant d'anciennes gloires de la Squadra Azzura, à l'image de Luigi Di Biagio ou Gianluca Zambrotta.

La présence des Barbagiuans

Parmi les équipes engagées dans ce tournoi, les spectateurs auront le plaisir de retrouver les Barbagiuans.

Créé il y a plus de quatre décennies par le Prince Albert II, l'équipe phare de la Fight Aids Cup est devenue incontournable dans le paysage sportif monégasque.

« Même si notre secteur de prédilection reste évidemment le football, il est envisageable de se diversifier, grâce notamment à la polyvalence de nos membres, a confié Louis Ducruet, président des Barbagiuans.

Participer à un tel événement est signe du développement de notre entité. »

Des enjeux caritatifs

Au-delà du terrain, cette Five Padel Cup sera également l'occasion de mettre l'accent sur un combat cher à Fight Aids Monaco : la prévention, le soutien et l'accompagnement permanent auprès des personnes atteintes du VIH, qui représentent 38,4 millions de cas en 2021.

Fondée en 2004 par la Princesse Stéphanie, l'association est devenue, au fil des années et des actions menées, une référence dans la lutte contre le VIH.

Un dévouement que la société BSG SRL, à l'origine de la compétition, tient à valoriser, en désignant l'association comme bénéficiaire d'une partie de leur recette.

« Nous sommes évidemment très reconnaissants envers les organisateurs. Cela représente une action originale, l'opportunité de promouvoir une fois de plus notre combat, précise Hervé Aeschbach, coordinateur de Fight Aids Monaco.

C'est notamment grâce à de telles initiatives que l'association poursuit et renforce son engagement, depuis presque 20 ans. »

Cinq choses à savoir sur la première édition de la Five Padel Cup

Le tennis club d'Eze accueillera les 18 et 19 avril prochains une nouvelle compétition sur ses terrains de padel. Portée par la société BSG SRL de Rome, elle réunira un parterre de VIPs et sera disputée pour la bonne cause notamment.

Une raquette et une balle jaune, non il n'est ici pas question de tennis, à l'honneur en Principauté depuis quelques jours avec la 116<sup>e</sup> édition du Monte-Carlo Rolex Masters, mais bien de padel. Cette pratique est née au Mexique à la fin des années 60 et commence à se faire un nom depuis une quinzaine d'années en Europe. Si Monaco ne dispose d'aucun terrain à ce jour sur son territoire, de nombreux adeptes résident ici et n'hésitent pas à prendre leur voiture pour aller jouer à Beausoleil ou à Eze. C'est d'ailleurs dans le village perché de la commune maralpine que se jouera la première édition de la Five Padel Cup la semaine prochaine. Explications.

1 - Pas un mais cinq tournois

Cette manifestation a été pensée par les différentes entités du groupe italien spécialisé dans les médias et la communication, BSG SRL. Comme le nom de ce nouveau rendez-vous le suggère, il ne s'agit pas d'une mais bien de cinq compétitions qui se dérouleront sur les terrains du tennis club d'Eze. Dans le détail : le tournoi jeune mixte, le tournoi féminin, le tournoi padel-fauteuil, le tournoi des personnalités du monde business et enfin le tournoi des VIPs sportifs. Des joueurs « issus d'horizons différents » mais réunis « autour d'un intérêt commun », estime Roberta Ceccarelli, CEO de la société basée à Rome.

2 - Les anciens footballeurs plébiscités

Parmi les sportifs confirmés, les organisateurs annoncent la présence de Luigi Di Biagio ou Gianluca Zambrotta, deux anciennes gloires du ballon rond ayant porté les couleurs de la sélection nationale italienne. D'anciens de l'AS Monaco FC sont également attendus. C'est le cas de Gaël Givet, qui n'hésite pas à troquer les crampons pour la raquette de padel, pratique à laquelle il s'adonne depuis plusieurs années. L'ancien défenseur confie : « J'ai tout de suite beaucoup apprécié cette discipline. Son apprentissage est abordable techniquement et le plaisir de jouer n'a pas tardé à faire son apparition. »

3 - Pourquoi à Eze ?

La localisation de ce nouveau rendez-vous des sports de raquette n'a pas été désignée au hasard par les organisateurs. « Nous avons choisi Monaco et ses alentours pour accueillir cette première édition [car] le cadre est prestigieux et propice au développement du padel. Les licenciés se multiplient, les clubs aussi... Il y a beaucoup de passionnés. Beaucoup de VIPs sportifs sont également très proches des nombreux terrains présents dans la région... C'est cet ensemble d'éléments qui nous a incités à organiser ici », explique Roberta Ceccarelli.

4 - En présence des Barbagiuans

La participation de Gaël Givet n'est pas anodine puisqu'il représentera durant cette première Five Padel Cup l'équipe de football du Prince : les Barbagiuans. La formation alignera quatre joueurs durant les deux jours de compétition. « Même si notre secteur de prédilection reste évidemment le football, il est envisageable de se diversifier, grâce notamment à la polyvalence de nos membres. Participer à un tel événement est signe du développement de notre entité », se réjouit le président, Louis Ducruet. Le public pourra d'ailleurs assister à ces rencontres gratuitement, mais il leur est demandé de réserver par mail à l'adresse suivante car les places sont limitées.

5 - Pour la bonne cause

Si l'aspect sportif se fera sentir sur les terrains, les « cinq tournois en un » portent également des valeurs caritatives avec des bénéfices en partie reversés à des associations. D'une part, les organisateurs ont fait le choix de soutenir Fight Aids Monaco, fondée en 2004 par la princesse Stéphanie et active dans la lutte contre le VIH. Reconnaissant, Hervé Aeschbach, le coordinateur de l'association, salue : « C'est notamment grâce à de telles initiatives que l'association poursuit et renforce son engagement, depuis presque 20 ans. » Des fonds seront également reversés à la Fondazione Heal, engagée dans la lutte contre les tumeurs cérébrales pédiatriques.

Les cinq tournois de la Five Padel Cup se sont déroulés en début de semaine au Tennis/Padel Club d'Eze.

Sous un soleil printanier, plus de 300 personnes étaient présentes durant trois jours pour cette première édition de la Five Padel Cup.

Avec des anciennes gloires de la Squadra Azzura comme Luigi Di Biagio ou Gianluca Zambrotta, la compétition a réuni du beau monde, avec notamment la présence des Barbagiuans de Monaco, représentés par Gaël Givet avec Sébastien Squillaci (équipe 1) et Manuel Vallaurio avec Jordan Klein (équipe 2).

Les deux équipes ont été encouragées tout au long de la journée par Louis Ducruet. « La Five Padel Cup est un véritable succès. Tous les participants avaient le sourire et se sont bien amusés », s'est félicitée Antonella Lanfranco, membre de l'organisation et responsable des relations internationales.

Des fonds récoltés pour Fight Aids Monaco et la Fondazione Heal

« Nous sommes très reconnaissants envers les organisateurs pour le chaleureux accueil qui a été réservé à Fight Aids Monaco, ainsi que leur soutien financier, a pour sa part confié Hervé Aeschbach, coordinateur de Fight Aids Monaco.

Le combat mené la Princesse Stéphanie, sous l'égide de l'association, a trouvé un nouveau point d'ancre dans le milieu sportif. »

FIVE PADEL CUP - 'PADEL IS NOT ONLY A SPORT, IT IS A WAY OF LIVING'

FIVE PADEL CUP: “PADEL IS NOT ONLY A SPORT, IT IS A WAY OF LIVING”

by Luke Entwistle 20/04/2023

FOLLOW

Perched up in the hills of Èze, the inaugural edition of the Five Padel Cup brought the region together for a "celebration" of one of the fastest-growing sports in France and Monaco.

FOLLOW

On a temperate and sunny Spring day at the Èze Tennis Club, Italians, French and Monégasques congregate around tables of food and drink, whilst in the background, faint but discernible sounds of Padel racquets, held by players both old and young, can be heard. This is the essence of Padel, described by organiser Antonella Lanfranco as "a sport that brings people together".

LIKE

Padel is one of the fastest-growing sports in France, and the interest in the event, attended by former professional football players such as Sébastien Squillaci, Gaël Givet and Gianluca Zambrotta, attests to that. "It's blowing up in France," says Squillaci who, as part of the Barbaguians, is more accustomed to a football pitch than a Padel court.

LIKE

For the former France defender, it is the accessibility of the sport that is lending it its popularity. "It's a sport that you can enjoy even if you aren't at peak physical fitness. I've never even played tennis, and very quickly, I was having fun with it," he said.

"IT'S A SPORT THAT BRINGS PEOPLE TOGETHER"

For Lanfranco, the organiser of this inaugural Five Padel Cup, the two-day event in Èze, which concluded on Wednesday, was about "celebrating the universality of the sport".

"Padel is growing massively in Italy, but in France and in Monaco as well. We are wanting to celebrate the universality of this sport," she said.

"It is becoming very popular. Playing Padel is very easy, even if you don't play tennis. You really get a taste for it after just one match. Everyone can have fun with it. It is also a convivial sport because you play as a four, and after the match, there is an aperitif, so it's a bit of a way of living. It is accepted that not everyone can play well, and I think that is one of the key aspects of the sport." Lanfranco told Monaco Life.

GAËL GIVET WINS IN MIXED VIP/WHEELCHAIR TOURNAMENT

The Five Padel tournament consisted of, as the name suggests, five different categories. Niccolò Coppola and Monteiro de Abreu Tiago won the Youth tournament. Federica Gottardi and Carlotta Gambaro won the Women's tournament, whilst in the tournament dedicated to manager and sports personalities. Scagnolo Sandro and Salvatore Ferri prevailed. Alessandro Lupi, a former professional football player and Jimmy Ghione, a TV reporter, won the VIP match. The mixed VIP/Wheelchair tournament was won by Barbaguian Givet and Niçois Dorian Navarro.

"It's always for a good cause," Squillaci told Monaco Life, with the funds raised going towards Princess Stéphanie's Fight AIDS Monaco association. "Mission accomplished," concluded Lanfranco after two days of exciting competition in what was a celebration of a growing sport.

Après avoir lancé la Fight Aids Cup en 2020, les Barbagiuans de Louis Druquet poursuivent leurs actions caritatives avec la première édition de la Five Padel Cup qui s'est tenue du 17 au 19 avril 2023 entre la principauté et le village d'Eze. Cette discipline, à mi-chemin entre le tennis et le squash, connaît un succès grandissant en Europe, où elle compte de plus en plus d'adeptes. À la fois ludique, convivial, physique et accessible à tous, le padel présente de nombreux avantages et des valeurs que la société BSG SRL [groupe italien spécialisé dans les médias et la communication — NDLR] et les Barbagiuans ont souhaité mettre en lumière à travers ce tournoi-événement, qui a réuni de nombreuses personnalités du monde du sport, mais pas que. Durant trois jours, celles-ci se sont affrontées dans la bonne humeur dans un tournoi VIP auquel ont notamment participé d'anciennes gloires de la Squadra Azzura comme Luigi Di Biagio, Gianluca Zambrotta, ainsi que l'équipe des Barbagiuans emmenée par l'ancien joueur de l'AS Monaco Gaël Givet. En parallèle, d'autres tournois (jeunes, féminin, pour joueurs en fauteuil, business) étaient également organisés pour assurer la promotion de la discipline.

Mais au-delà de l'aspect sportif, la Five Padel Cup a surtout été l'occasion de collecter des fonds au profit de l'association de lutte contre le sida, Fight Aids Monaco, et de rappeler les messages de prévention contre cette maladie qui tue encore chaque année des centaines de milliers de personnes dans le monde. «Nous sommes évidemment très reconnaissants envers les organisateurs. Cela représente une action originale, l'opportunité de promouvoir une fois de plus notre combat», salut Hervé Aeschbach, coordinateur de l'association monégasque, qui voit dans le sport «un des plus importants vecteurs de communication, susceptible d'influer sur les mentalités, les comportements... C'est un biais incontournable, qui permet d'accentuer la portée de nos revendications, concernant la lutte contre le VIH». Une partie des recettes a également été reversée à la Fondazione Heal, qui soutient financièrement le travail des médecins et des chercheurs engagés dans la lutte contre les tumeurs cérébrales pédiatriques.

INAUGURAL EDITION OF FIVE PADEL CUP A SMASHING SUCCESS

by Jack Brodie | Apr 20, 2023 | Sport

The very first edition of the Five Padel Cup was a smashing success, as Padel players of all ages competed on the courts of the Eze Tennis and Padel Club over two full days.

Representing the Principality as part of the Barbagians of Monaco were Gaël Givet with Sébastien Squillaci in one team and Manuel Vallaurio and Jordan Klein in the other. The president of the Barbagians, Louis Ducruet, was present to support the former footballers in the two red and white teams.

As planned, funds were raised and donated to the Fight AIDS Monaco association led by Princess Stephanie. The coordinator of the association, Hervé Aeschbach, thanked the organisers of the Five Padel Cup, BSG SRL, saying "We are very grateful to the organisers for the warm welcome given to Fight AIDS Monaco, as well as their financial support. The fight led by Princess Stéphanie, under the aegis of the association, has found a new foothold in the sports world. We are pleased. Special thanks go to CEO Roberta Ceccarelli and the entire company BSG SRL, who initiated this magnificent event."

Five Padel Cup: a more than successful edition

 Vincent Gallie  April 23th

entertainment, padel and charitable activities punctuated the Tennis Club de Èze for two days, with the first edition of the Five Padel Cup. Five tournaments were on the program, an opportunity to send an important message of inclusion and solidarity.

A big party in Èze

First edition for the FIVE PADEL CUP, organized by the Italian company BSG SRL. For two days a big party hosted the Borfiga complex in Èze. The objective of the event is multiple: stimulate physical activity, raise funds for associations, but above all promote social inclusion and equal opportunities. To Antonella Lanfranco, head of international relations at BSG SRL, this initiative is obvious: "Thee padel is a vector of inclusion, it is a true symbol of universality. The objective was also to bring together players "from different backgrounds around a common interest", valued Roberta Ceccarelli, CEO of the Rome-based company.

Results of the various tournaments

- Youth Tournament: Niccolò Coppola / Monteiro de Abreu Tiago
- women's tournament : Federica Gottardi / Carlotta Gambaro
- Tournament for player padel armchair + VIP : Gael Givet / Dorian Navarro
- Tournament of managers / business personalities : Scagnoli Sandro / Salvatore Ferri

All around a common goal

For two days Èze became an Italian province. Celebrities, professional players, but also the major players in transalpine disabled sports were present. Gianluca Palazzi is the precursor of padel chair in Italy. FIVE PADEL CUP has a special meaning for him "In 2018, I sent an email to the Italian Tennis Federation to highlight our discipline. The Circolo Canottieri Aniene believed in our project and the movement was born. Our objective was to show the integrating potential of padel. The federation took us under its wing but without the Circolo Canottieri Aniene nothing would have been possible, he is moved, For us, this kind of event is a big celebration and it shows that our efforts are bearing fruit. We are a family", concludes the transalpine player.
